Your creativity is expressed through a manual technique. You have inherited a taste for action and the adaptability of your ancestors. Your family is characterized by a mixture of cultural and/or opening to the world. The love of children is present as well as the pleasure of organizing friendly receptions, lectures, experiments. The presence of foreign cultures and/or travel impresses you. This infiltration may lead to you to move to another country. Transformations and unexpected events are part of this first period of life. You change and frequently change your place of residence, sometimes living among brothers and sisters if any, unless it is you who are hosting them. Love stories may also involve travel and the need to change housing, a bit like the story of your own parents. It is possible however that these frequent changes from childhood involve some form of instability. A pervasive sense of injustice may arise even at this time.

During her pregnancy, your mother found herself in a changing environment - be it because of travels, or moving in or out of homes, or separations of some kind. This shifting context has left tracks within you.

A child, you have seen your mother with more head than heart. She had a masculine side, overshadowing the emotional marks and sensitive listening. This does not prevent you from idealizing, even if this lack of representation maternal femininity. An adult, you will be attracted to women more than men, who are able to assert themselves.

Your father is rather intelligent, critical, responsive, if not rebellious against everything that is redundant and mundane. You take the example of the mental strength of this father into an asset and assert yourself.

YOUR TEMPERAMENT

You usually act calm and collected, taking care that your actions do not invite too much criticism. You give priority to the mind, even sometimes to spirituality. Your mental activity is productive and full of imagination. You know how to manage people. You are direct and act frankly. You know how to adapt facing any situation that should come up. You do an excellent job in a task directed towards others. You have a genuine skill for analyzing people's problems, and hence bring them psychological comfort. You are skilled in bringing people together around an idea, a project. When facing the unexpected, you tend to react slowly. You need to find a strong, whole, unbiased answer.

YOUR MAIN QUALITIES

First of all, you have a strong personality and are usually very positive. You are enterprising, direct, at ease as soon as initiatives must be taken. Furthermore, this yearning of committing yourself is particularly blatant everytime you take a step back or whenever your freedom is being jeopardized.

You adapt yourself easily. You are appreciated for your sense of dialogue, of sharing. You are sensitive. However, you find it easier to cooperate whenever you commit yourself first, and others must follow.

You are sociable by nature. People appreciate you, even more, they look forward to your company. You make friends easily. You are clever, creative, sometimes gifted in arts. Furthermore, your sociability is sometimes slowed down by the difference between your way of considering things and your way of achieving them. Between the idea and the achievement, the gap is sometimes difficult to bridge.

You are so loyal that people trust you easily. Sometimes your skills for method and organisation are appreciated. You often like order. However, you can prove flexible concerning the principles of method and organisation. Human relationships must prevail and not become hindered by purely materialistic issues.

Your adventurous personality, your yearning for freedom will not be granted all the space they're seeking. You will have to make shift with the challenge of number 5. No bounds, no ties, towards the exaltation of all your senses, in order to experiment very diverse situations.

People like to confide in you. They come to you for advice or to be cheered up. You know your family duties well (please note that the word family must be taken at large, i.e including a circle of friends). In fact, calm and peace are very important to you, at home or at work. You wish to share responsibilities and to work towards more harmony with your partner.

On another level, your skills to think things over and to stay still in any circumstances will be tested when the challenge of number 7 comes about. But challenges are made to be accepted, aren't they? In addition, your first move is not to trust others. Your inner space is private. It belongs to you and you don't want to share it.

You adopt a moral stance towards financial and social matters. You are reliable. You know how to control the desire for power and stay righteous. I'll add that the more you resort to advice, the more you cooperate, the better you will reach a certain form of power.

You care for others. People like you, because you prove to be able to understand and love others, to take care of them and comfort them. Subconsciously, you know right from wrong. Your impulses of charity would need to be expressed in a humanitarian project. Exploring, discovering and at the same time, helping others, this is your way to go.

YOUR SOCIAL IMAGE

The following analysis concerns the influence of your current name de Gaulle with your personality, especially regarding your social relationships. In some cases, these will come into conflict with your deeper nature. They then cause an inner duality.

Under the influence of your current name, you are independent and turned towards within. You're imaginative and intuitive, you devote your energy to exploring both the physical and the spiritual. You have the soul of a seeker, whatever your field of exploration may be. Put to profit your analytic talents. You are now seeking peaceful relations. You strive for tolerance and harmony. The influence of your current name does not change your true nature.

YOUR PREDISPOSITION

Given the above analysis, we will now carry out a synthesis of all these different influences. Firstly you are one of those people who has strong opinions on many subjects. You display a lot of ambition, courage, vitality. You're able to put yourself out to meet your goals whilst appearing agitated. You also have a tendency to make everything about you.

A tendency towards a certain paranoia may develop during your life. Your rather curious nature forces you to push the boundaries, whatever they may be. You spend a lot of time reflecting and fine tuning your strategies because you are demanding and a perfectionist. You like to expand intellectually and you have a great need to be recognized as a cultured being. You will seek to get past the image that you have created of your father, as if you had a challenge ahead. You must learn to calm yourself down, not to yield to some nervousness which leads you straight to burnout. Contacts with the foreign may be frequent and despite your fears, sometimes unspoken, your destiny has some good surprises in store for you. You will seek to keep the direction of your business even if you surround yourself with employees. You need to be part of a group of elitists. You are very idealistic and you can easily think that you have a mission to fulfill. In love, in friendship, as in the workplace, you need to meet people that you think are exceptional. You find it difficult to carry out long term relationships, be it in love or in business matters. If your projects need collaboration, you'd better choose a partner who is willing to 'play second fiddle'. You are perfectly able to collaborate, be it in professional or in heart matters. You are excellent at facing up professional responsibilities. Your relationships are important, yet your own projects and ideas count more than others. You love to move about, to go places, to live new diverse experiences, and yet you are hard working. You love your family life and its responsibilities, yet you long to move around, living varied experiences and going out. This strong desire often keeps you away from home. You like to think things over before you make any decision. You know how to strike a sound material balance around you.

YOUR LIFE PATH

Since your birth, the path you have chosen shows that you should be able to tell right from wrong. Of course you will have responsibilities to stand up for. Be positive and ambitious, and you will succeed.

You are on a life path that enables you to widen the vision you have of the world and yourself, and to accept it. You are such a demanding perfectionist that the slightest problem annoys you to a point that you feel guilty. You can assess your own potential and other people's potential, but your nature is too impatient, you wish you reached your goal immediately, you are unable to wait for gradual improvement. You start by regarding everyone and everything as a promise, until you are quickly disappointed, because no one and nothing fulfills your ideal expectations. Learn how to step back, criticize less, discover more the lightness of being. By doing so, you will let your remarkable energy flow and carry out your projects on behalf of others.

You are asked to accept mistakes in the long run. You tend to give a lot. You are dedicated, easy-going and kind with outsiders coming into your circle of friends. Beware of certain persons who might want to take advantage of your benevolence and generosity. You must think about yourself too. You are the ideal associate. Once you are able to accept the idea that even quality projects can hold a few drawbacks, and more generally speaking that errors can enable evolution, you will eventually have a much easier life. In your case, your family environment is likely to lead to conspicuous impacts on your life path.

You have all the necessary resources to carry out your projects. By acting step by step and by emphasizing your strength and abilities to analyse, you can give and receive back.

Your life path is strongly colored by other aspects. You are driven by your ideals and you are very creative, you will therefore feel the urge to help others, at a certain point of your life. Make sure you keep pragmatic and balanced, for you tend to dream too much. You imagine a world your way and you then want the real world to embody your dream. Aren't you too ambitious? Your perfectionism and your low self-esteem are challenges you must face. Or else your creativity will not be able to flow as you'd like it to. Your participation in this world may then not be very constructive. You must therefore give life to your visions, through a certain discipline, for your desire to experiment and explore is sometimes too conspicuous. Accept other people as they are. Which does not imply you must do nothing and change nothing.

You are able to transcend people, to drive them to develop a nicer image of themselves. You give them something new that allows them to improve their conditions. You are focused, patient, respectful of other people and yourself, you can act with the right views.

Your social achievement and personal development will overcome your involvement in projects where it is a question of knowledge, culture, transmission, community life. You like to use your perceptive mind, enrich your knowledge and give free rein to your imagination. On the other hand, you have trouble when the context seems fixed or when you work in a way that is too centred on yourself. Your mother has played a significant role in your direction. Eventually you will realize that it is by giving to others, by serving a just cause, that you get the greatest satisfaction.

You have enough intuition and creative power to carry out your projects, even though they appear ambitious and fancy at first. This ability has its own challenge present in the central part of life: Other aspects point out that you are likely to be betrayed by someone around you. You are gifted in writing and for arts in general.

During this life, you plan to help, take care and listen to the people around you. Stand up for your responsibilities. Express more your aesthetic sense. Another lesson will deal with your capacity to carry out a constant and lasting effort, without giving up.

YOUR RELATIONS

You are completely geared towards the search for a companion and/or an ideal activity to the point of being unable to fully get involved with others or vis à vis a job when you realize the limitations. That's why it's difficult for you to commit long term. Something suggests to you that perfection can only be found elsewhere. However as you go through your experiences, learn how to relativise this point of view and agree to live your relational life fully, albeit short of your expectations. That said you are able to show real heart qualities highly valued by your loved ones.

Sexually, again, you need to achieve the perfect act so that you can turn into a skilful and attentive lover. You are focused more on the quality of performance and prefer to give everything to the point that you forget yourself. Enjoy receiving too.

YOUR KARMIC DEBTS

First, you may distinguish aspects of your existence where it will be necessary to put in a particular effort during several years. Th the end, it is always favorable as soon as you have taken conscience of the problem, and that you fully stand for it.

You appear distant compared to certain contingencies of life as a form of wisdom enabling you to take the necessary step back.

When faced with everyday problems, you dwell within yourself and explore introspection.

Your chart shows you have an old soul (many incarnations). ?You've experienced many aspects of life and sometimes... you left a debt of some sort. As a result, some sudden events may occur in your life and generate profound changes. For instance, the brutal loss of a person you love, the treachery of a friend, a project that crumbles, the departure of a spouse... Numerology enables you to determine to what old pattern this consequence corresponds.

Here is the main karmic debt you have chosen to erase.

You have a debt relating to the fact that you have given your word to another (spouse, associate, partner), depriving it of its expression. In any such past life, you find it difficult to bear criticism or remarks, while being able to use this weapon yourself. You tend to see flaws (supposedly) in your partners instead of their qualities. Your obsessive fears could hamper your life, and they are still evident today, including the need for evidence on everything.

Today you need to understand your partner (who is often the same soul once known) and let them their rightful place by treating them equally. However, your partners can turn this evidence that you subjected them to back on you and difficulties of expression, inability to make your voice heard by your partner and your associates in general, may well arise.

YOUR CHALLENGES

Your main challenge indicates that you should avoid spreading yourself too thinly by pursuing too many objectives at once. You often give the impression that you feel above the fray. It will be overcoming a form of bad faith and a tendency not to be the opportunist of service through your ability to use yourself for the ease of relatives in public, to get what you want through them. In fact this challenge should teach you how to focus, to set yourself up to complete what you plan but without isolating yourself from the world. The rationale for some events is to train yourself or retrain yourself for it. Furthermore, you shall fear neither introspection nor self-criticism. You humbly open up to others as to the forces of the Spirit, expressing your faith more deeply in what you do and in life.

For you, this major challenge is mainly characterized by the need to control your high reactivity in relation to everything that dictates what you should do while you are rather lenient towards yourself. You will meet opposition to your quarrelsome and vindictive mind. You will need to move away from certain fixed ideas. You'll also find a path that corresponds to your ideal well and gives you the feeling of accomplishing a mission. Besides, you enjoy being the advocate of lost causes. Finally your sharp eye to notice every detail, your obsession with cleanliness, hygiene should not mesmerize you to the point of constituting a disability.

Until you are 45 or so, You take on another challenge that will show itself through A need to assert your point of view and to justify your own initiatives without taking the time to listen to others. You need to find a way to work with others without claiming that your way of seeing things is the only way. It is also about adapting to events and unexpected circumstances that may suddenly occur during this period.

Over 45, you will face a new challenge. Now, a strong need for change, earthly food or other, will be amazingly felt. You will manage it by remaining balanced, measured and patient, otherwise these pleasures would not be without consequence with respect to those who love you. This challenge is finding a balance between your quest for freedom and the aspirations of others. We must not neglect friendship, be attentive to your loved ones and deal with your environment and the opportunities that arise.

This challenge occurring after the forties focuses on the need to strike a balance between your desires and pleasures and the contingencies of everyday life that you do not always understand. Too much excess would lead you to suffer the repercussions of a turbulent life by preventing you from having adequate financial protection. It is also about measuring the consequences of too much candor that may cause you to be sarcastic. Nervousness, mood changes, tantrums will sometimes be misunderstood by those around you. Watch out for excess speed. This challenge may also lead you to find and have to manage an unstable situation with a child.

On the whole your body is rather robust in the face of disease. For you, the link between your lifestyle and health is very important and your body will show any imbalance much more quickly than in others. Besides, you often oscillate between a strict lifestyle and letting yourself go at different times. Dependency and/or a breeding ground for allergies can also set in to relieve feelings of frustration when they arise. Ultimately what you want in any therapy, are the remedies to get back into shape and tone step by step. You are not as keen on a drastic remedy for immediate results. Also look to martial arts and disciplines for relaxation and the well-being of the body giving results over time.

Certain events in your life are likely to entail psychological troubles , such as insomnia, nervous breakdown. You might indulge in excessive tobacco, alcohol or drugs. If so, water will prove a precious friend of yours.

Especially if this has already been mentioned above, be particularly careful regarding your movements. There is a risk of you falling down and breaking a shoulder or a lower limb. Keep cautious concerning your blood pressure too and muscle pains.

Make sure you eat at regular times and slowly too , so as to prevent digestion problems. Brutal temperature changes affect you strongly. The skin, the gall bladder, the liver and the blood circulation are likely to prove troublesome. To a lesser degree, make sure your body has enough oligo elements. See that you don't cut nor burn yourself. This applies after your forties.

Moreover, the artery circulation is too nervous. Also pay attention to your artery pressure.
