YOUR LIFE PATH

You are not always aware of the consequences of your acts: justice courts may have to remind you this aspect! You first have to find trust and balance. You can help others, but your competition spirit is too developed. Your feeling inferior, unsecure, makes you look shy at first glance. There is a lot of duality within you. Then once you have overcome these difficulties, you become inspired and you access the source of creative energy. What will you do with it? Probably powerful realisations, if you are able to let go of the pressure generated by different addictions. Through your creations, you have the power to brighten things up, to teach, and eventually to be free. Deep within you, you are conscious of your destiny. You do have a true power of attraction. You are remarkable at producing efforts so as to reach your goals. Your loyalty and your truthfulness are appreciated. Your creations are very special. The Spirit is guiding you.

Your life path is strongly colored by other aspects. Your path will bring you to develop your potential so as to cooperate. Your inner wealth will lead you to support, help and take responsibility for others. Yet, be careful to avoid dependence and submission. You must strike a balance between doing too much and not enough. You must prove able to say no, to set the limits between what is a chore and what is a pleasure. You always weigh the pros and cons, because balance represents a goal for you. You should then let your analysis and urge for order on the side. Don't drown in petty details. You can rely on your intuition, your inner strength and your sensitivity to bring love and support, without believing you are responsible for the whole wild world. Eventually, you will have to assess every situation with insight, and not strive after solving other people's issues, unless you deeply feels he/she needs it. You clearly have the ability to find a balance which fulfills your family, your social and professional life. Through intuition, you will be able to solve difficulties, address problems and eventually share your capacity for inner peace.

Your social achievement and personal development will overcome the recognition of your need to be socially recognised and rewarded. You quickly learn to take advantage of challenges presented to you and to use your address book. You will also be appreciated for the way you express yourself with warmth and enthusiasm. So it is up to you to give yourself the means to do so. Anything related to communication, coordination, representation, creation is in your favour. The age of maturity will be marked by a change in your career with opportunities to seize.

You have the power to thwart the difficulties of life. The sincere energy you have will help you go far. This ability has its own challenge present in the central part of life: Learn to make good use of any form of power (money, authority, political, etc). Keep self confident: this is the challenge of the day. Other aspects point out that you will definitively be successful in the long term.

During this life, you plan to know how to accept delays. Resume your efforts without rebelling yourself. Your courage will eventually yield results. Another lesson will deal with your ability to commit yourself, to take decisions, to manage people without being too bossy.

YOUR RELATIONS

The quality of your relationships depends in large part on your mind. You have a sentimental side but more often than not it is repressed; intellectual considerations take over. In addition, you value your independence and do not really like participating in meetings that you have not chosen yourself beforehand. That said you are looking for support and as long as you believe in yourself, your power of attraction is great. It may also be that you don't meet anyone, obsessed with a project or work.

Sexually, you may feel the need to frequently take pleasure because of the energy within you. However, the quality of your communication is largely dependent on your balance in everyday life. You need to feel secure, confident to shine in this area and also to allow your partner to enjoy a rich and intense experience.

YOUR KARMIC DEBTS

First, you may distinguish aspects of your existence where it will be necessary to put in a particular effort during several years. In the end, it is always favorable as soon as you have taken conscience of the problem, and that you fully stand for it.

You appear distant compared to certain contingencies of life as a form of wisdom enabling you to take the necessary step back.

When faced with everyday problems, you seek for outside help, from whom you can trust.

Your chart shows you have an old soul (many incarnations). You've experienced many aspects of life and sometimes... you left a debt of some sort. As a result, some sudden events may occur in your life and generate profound changes. For instance, the brutal loss of a person you love, the treachery of a friend, a project that crumbles, the departure of a spouse... Numerology enables you to determine to what old pattern this consequence corresponds.

Here is the main karmic debt you have chosen to erase.

You have a debt relating to the fact that you have given your word to another (spouse, associate, partner), depriving it of its expression. In any such past life, you find it difficult to bear criticism or remarks, while being able to use this weapon yourself. You tend to see flaws (supposedly) in your partners instead of their qualities. Your obsessive fears could hamper your life, and they are still evident today, including the need for evidence on everything.

Today you need to understand your partner (who is often the same soul once known) and let them their rightful place by treating them equally. However, your partners can turn this evidence that you subjected them to back on you and difficulties of expression, inability to make your voice heard by your partner and your associates in general, may well arise.

YOUR CHALLENGES

Your main challenge indicates that you must demonstrate the ability to sustain the effort needed to realise your projects and focus on a practical approach to life. It is by acquiring the perseverance and serious qualities that you overcome all restrictions. Your independence and your freedom will not be possible if you persist in being so unhelpful. You need to get rid of a type of psycho rigidity. Routine does not necessarily come with boredom; you will discover motivations, excitement in an altogether ordinary life. This challenge requires certain overly strict educational modes to be overcome in order to not get overwhelmed by emotions that are often linked to your childhood memories which you want to escape from. As a child, you worried about the slightest detail; you were not very tolerant and took events in life which upset your daily routine badly. These inconveniences were there to teach you how to adapt.

For you, this major challenge is mainly characterized by the need to open up more to the world, namely to stop working because you load yourself up like a mule and easily yield to pessimism, to paint the picture of your life too black. This is not about you being stubborn, but instead accepting opposing views, otherwise you will meet people who remind you that your stubbornness is excessive. Without getting rid of your seriousness, see how a little flexibility and imagination in your life could also make you more comfortable. Family difficulties you experienced when you were younger are at the root of a constant need for security. So, the challenge is not to be subjected to pressure and blackmail from your loved ones to ensure your stability.

Until you are 40 or so, you take on another challenge that will show itself through a tendency to spread yourself too thinly. This involves developing an ability to focus on a goal rather than to follow several without truly getting to the bottom of things. A strong sense of feeling different from others may lead you to believe you are above the fray. However, you must learn to see what is at the root of your difficulties. You'll also tend to take advantage of certain situations even if it means acting in bad faith.

This first minor challenge is defined by the need to control your high reactivity in relation to everything that dictates what you should do while you are rather lenient towards yourself. You will meet opposition to your quarrelsome and vindictive mind. You will need to move away from certain fixed ideas. You'll also find a path that corresponds to your ideal well and gives you the feeling of accomplishing a mission. Besides, you enjoy being the advocate of lost causes. Finally your sharp eye to notice every detail, your obsession with cleanliness, hygiene should not mesmerize you to the point of constituting a disability.

Over 40, you will face a new challenge. Now, you will give great importance to living in a perfect world and demand it for many of your loved ones. When your expectations are not met, you tend to become very critical. This challenge is to not believe that only you really matter or that you discharge the best of your obligations. You should consider the consequences of your commitments properly.

This challenge occurring after the forties focuses on the need to not succumb to the urge to criticize anything that does not match your thirst for ethics and justice, to see that everything has its purpose. You will tend to sacrifice yourself for your offspring, your spouse and/or your socio-professional activity, but while maintaining deep resentments against your commitments you have taken on alone; certainly in response to a personal context that has left a deep impression (the feeling of injustice).

YOUR FIRST CYCLE

Until the age of 25, here is the climate of your life: the context allows you to highlight your communicative personality. Very young, you like to have fun and indulge in artistic activities, at the risk of not following school properly. It is possible that you lived as a boarder. Otherwise, you have a sense of contact and friendship. Animation, the art, the relational, the trade with an audience, an accustomed clientele are in your strings and suit you well during this cycle. This period is put into perspective with what you assume, namely your first realization that will expire in 1949, at the age of 34. To begin, you are a persevering child, a worker. YOUR LAST CYCLE

Often, you still retain an activity but probably in a new direction. A reorientation of how to design your life will occur following the transformation of a situation.

A new context change begins from your 53 years, i.e. in 1968: The context allows the development of your inner self, sometimes resonating with deep faith. A transformation affects married life. The unspoken, your propensity to keep your problems secret are causing a blockage in your relationship. You need to rethink the dialogue and how to express your feelings.

Meanwhile your life path is that of friendship, associations, understanding, conviviality. It requires you to cooperate, to take the views of others into account, not to dominate but rather to help and support, be a comfort. It requires diplomacy, the ability to be attentive, available. Look for jobs which are creative and inventive by definition. Occupations forming a large part of circles of influence, relationships, are also preferred. Ideally the occupation should leave you free for your movements while allowing you to give to others. Basically you are both individualistic and altruistic. The money, the plenty will be waiting for you when you serve the common good in one way or another. You will also need to exercise patience and temper your impulsiveness in your youth. Your personality often makes it difficult when it comes to adapting to these life situations.

You 'd tend to be efficient, hard-working, and yet beaming. You strive to go forward, to keep on improving. You are against fix and set values, but you keep cold-headed.

Deep within yourself, you yearn to help others. You need a job where you would be able to show your qualities of seeker of beauty, qualities of bringing people together and giving good advice. You 'd also like your image to be more acknowledged, or in other words, you 'd like to get a feedback of your actions.

Here are some fields of activities where opportunities may come about for you. This doesn't mean you necessarily love these jobs, but they 're adapted to your abilities. Therefore, see in what way they can meet your desires : careers with great responsibility that are either liberal (lawyer, architect, consulting etc) or administrative (executive, management, organization), but also that which relates to sculpture, archaeology, ancient art.
